

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION.

The Four-County Association Holds Its Third Annual Meeting at Stroudsburg.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Stroudsburg, June 5.—The third annual convention of the Four-County Firemen's association was called to order this afternoon at 2 o'clock by President H. B. Keller, of Stroudsburg.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, June 5.—At the meeting of the school board, held at the office of the secretary, B. W. Lewis, on Saturday evening, the matter of the graduation of the present senior class of the high school came up for consideration.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, June 5.—The cornerstone of the new Baptist church at Brushville will be laid on Thursday, June 14, at 10 o'clock a. m.

NEW MILFORD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. New Milford, June 5.—Children's day will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, June 5.—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Capwell, of this town, were married at their home, Wednesday evening, June 6, for the benefit of the Baptist church.

church, to hold an ice cream and strawberry social at her home on Thursday evening, June 7.

Subscriptions papers are being solicited to obtain a new bell for the Methodist church. All will be glad to hear a church bell at Kingsley.

On Monday, Mr. C. French fell about nine feet from a scaffolding at Oakley's saw mill, striking the back of his head on a stone. He was unconscious for about two hours. When he revived he rode on his wheel to his boarding place at Kingsley. Later he again became unconscious and Dr. Taylor, of Hopbottom, was called. He is a little better at this writing. His brother came from Binghamton this morning to care for him.

At the close of the school year at the public schools here there will be vacancies among the teachers. Miss Mary Jayne and Miss Mame Shook retiring. There are twenty-five applications already filed for the two places, including several from Tunkhannock.

The salary of the teachers has been fixed by the school board at $20 per month during the first year of their service, and if the teacher is retained at the end of the year the salary is to be increased.

James Stark, of Philadelphia, one of the parties interested in the Henry Stark estate, is in town this week, looking after repairs being put upon some of the property of the estate in the town. The old Herrick building, at the corner of Bridge and Toga streets, now being repaired for the use of the Hilkowick clothing firm, is property of the Stark estate.

A quiet wedding was solemnized here today, when Draper Billings and Miss Leighton, both of this place, were united in marriage by Rev. Wilbur, of the Methodist church. Only the immediate relatives of the parties were present. The couple left on the afternoon train for a short trip to New York and other places of interest. Mr. Billings is a merchant here and one of the town's best citizens, and Miss Leighton, a daughter of the late Rev. Nathan Leighton, of this place.

The county treasurer's regular bi-monthly sale of seated and unseated lands returned for non-payment of taxes, will be held at the court house here on Monday, June 11.

The regular meeting of the Triton Hose company will be held at the hose house this evening.

Forest City, June 5.—Mrs. J. E. Woodman, of Lake Como, in Miss Nettie Ken, of Windsor, N. Y., are the guests of Mrs. Henry Weed, on Delaware street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Curtis and daughter, Miss Louise, are visiting friends in New York.

The school board met on Monday evening. After the old board had transacted the final business they adjourned sine die. A large crowd had gathered, evidently anticipating more or less trouble that has previously marked occasions of this character, but were somewhat disappointed. There was no opposition to the grant of office, and the result was: President, Attorney M. J. Dixon; secretary, P. H. O'Brien; treasurer, Jacob Webster. The retiring members were Edward Gibbons, Martin Carlson, John Clifford and A. J. O'Malley. "Squire Fitzmaurice" administered the oath of office to the new members. This is the roster for the present year: Messrs. O'Brien, Reilly, Webster, Clifford, James Ward, Doran, Daniel Ward, Davis and Dixon.

The Christian and Missionary alliance convention opened in a tent in the North End yesterday morning. Hymns of the Christian Life, No. 1, are used. The order of themes will be: "The Fourfold Gospel, Christ Our Savior," "Sanctifier, Healer and Comforter," "The Holy Spirit and His Desper Life in Christ," "Divine Healing and Our Physical Life in Christ," "The Coming of Christ and Our Preparation for It." "The Evangelization of the World and Our Part in It." Among the speakers will be Rev. P. H. Benfit and wife, of Philadelphia; Rev. James Leshman, of Binghamton; Rev. W. T. McArthur, of Scranton; All are invited.

T. J. Deebie, a student at the Dickinson Law school, is home since Saturday.

J. F. Conaloy and Frank Parks are doing jury duty this week.

Martin Mullen, of the North End, is a candidate for delegate to the coming Democratic convention.

Dr. Taylor, of Wilkes-Barre, performed a delicate operation on Miss business trip to Cleveland, Ohio, and to Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Burhardt and son, of Honesdale, Pa., are visitors at the home of A. Lilje.

Mrs. H. F. Aldrich, accompanied by her guest, Mrs. Sherman, of Straight, spent a few days last week with friends in Hopbottom, was called. He is Isaac Joseph, of the firm of A. J. Lowne & Co., spent last week in New York city, laying in a stock of summer goods.

T. C. Manser is putting on an addition in the rear of the postoffice, which he will use as a residence as soon as completed.

Lena Carpenter, of Uniondale, is visiting at the home of Mr. Samuel May.

Mrs. Z. Westcott, of Center street, and Mrs. Griggs, of South Gibson, spent Tuesday with friends in Uniondale.

Foreman Job Allen a few days ago and went to work for the middle car. He hopes to be able to return to work in a few weeks.

Attorney W. H. Gillespie was doing business in town last evening.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Brooklyne, June 4.—Mrs. Brown and Miss Candace Brown visited Mrs. W. L. Sterling last week.

Miss Edith Kent, a teacher in the Boys' Orphan school, spent Memorial day with her parents.

Boyd Austin has been dangerously ill for the past week, is a little better today.

Mr. P. H. Tiffany is very low and has not improved, as was hoped. His sons, Judson Tiffany and Fred Tiffany, are with him.

Mrs. John Tiffany and Mrs. Titus, of Hopbottom, were in town last week.

The Y. P. C. U. realized over ten dollars from their ice cream sale and kindly donated cream and assisted in serving it.

There is to be an ice cream social on the lawn of the Presbyterian church next Friday evening.

The supervisors did not accept all the roads, but are working them over in good shape. In most places they think that all loose stones have been removed.

A band of eighteen members has been organized in town. Many of the boys have their instruments and on Thursday evening the first practicing will occur, with Isaac Law in charge. The townspeople deserve sympathy, but the band boys deserve the encouragement and support in this undertaking. There is some talk of a Fourth of July celebration, in charge of the band. We hope it will materialize.

On account of the petitions against an earlier date, our school will open the last Monday in August. The teachers are M. M. Stephens, Elizabeth Wright, Bessie Chamberlin and Mary Hearn.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. New Milford, June 5.—Children's day will be observed at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Leon Miller, of Aiford, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller.

Mrs. George Gardner, of Scranton, and Miss Nettie Millard, of Heart Lake, called on relatives here the first of the week.

Miss Maggie Hand visited friends in Binghamton last week.

Miss Ella Peck is seriously ill at her home on Church street. She is attended by Dr. Snyder, of this place, and Dr. Peck, of Susquehanna.

Corcoran, of Honesdale, and H. H. Stead, visited relatives in town Sunday.

Miss Mary Hand spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Binghamton and Elmira.

Miss Josie Dickerman, of Elmira, is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. J. Hall.

Fayette Sprout and brother, Charles, of Montrose, were callers in town Sunday afternoon.

The board of school directors held a meeting at the high school building Monday evening to elect new officers and teachers for the coming year. The officers elected were: President, C. C. Pratt; secretary, James Hayden; treasurer, S. V. Trumbull. The teachers elected were: Principal, E. A. Benson; grammar department, J. V. Axtell; intermediate, Miss Nell Moore; second primary, Miss Lettie Woodhouse. The teacher for the first primary will be elected two weeks hence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harb visited Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Alden at Nicholson last week.

Mrs. George Parker has returned from a visit among friends in Illinois.

Mrs. Rooney, of Great Bend, was calling on friends in town yesterday. Leon Gunn visited in Nicholson recently.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, June 5.—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Capwell, of this town, were married at their home, Wednesday evening, June 6, for the benefit of the Baptist church.

The services of the Factoryville band have been secured for the evening. A kypsy tent will be on the grounds, where only one at a time will be admitted. The evening cake will be served for the nominal price of fifteen cents.

Mr. E. C. Reynolds has returned from the Wills hospital, New York, where his eyes were treated for black cataracts. His many friends will be pleased to learn the operation was a success and his eyesight is fully restored.

Mrs. Harry J. Frear and son, Floyd, of Oakland, Md., left for their home last Saturday morning. Mrs. Frear is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lela Frear, who will spend the summer with her.

Miss Sara E. Pike, of New York, is spending some time with her parents on Main street.

Miss Annette R. Bush returned last Saturday from Gravenhurst, Canada, where she spent the last three weeks, and is a six weeks' illness.

Attorney and Mrs. R. U. Capwell, of Scranton, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. Walter Reynolds will leave this morning for Greystown, where she will remain to learn the Sarah Rice Circle, G. A. R., of this place.

How to Cure a Sprain. Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain, but it grew worse and the doctor then said I had rheumatism. I continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I tried it and tried it and a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends.—F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

Penny's New Purchase. New York, June 5.—It was officially stated today that the Pennsylvania railroad was the purchaser of the property of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, which is the largest holding of the first mortgage bonds, having a majority of the outstanding $2,000,000. The purchase was made under an arrangement with the other bondholders, the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, and the trustee and the other terminal property will be used jointly by the Wheeling and Lake Erie, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pennsylvania.

Corporation Charter. Harrisburg, June 5.—The Diamond Silk company, of York, with a capital of $200,000, was chartered today.

Jonas Long's Sons The Great June Sale of Muslin Underwear Offers, Without Question, the Most Important Bargains in the History of the Store.

Yesterday was a day of crowds. Every aisle, every avenue was thronged to its utmost. It was a happy response to a meritorious occasion. Today the great event continues, and every day while present lots remain. You will find it to your interest to join the grand army of fortunate who are saving money at this semi-annual occasion

The Big Store's Great Grocery Offers its June list of bargains with a sense of pride and satisfaction that it is possible to provide so much for so little money.

Flour, Coffee, Teas, Butter, Pickles, Miscellaneous, Soap, Cereals, Washing Powder, Fish. Includes prices for various goods like Kent Preserving Co's, Cross & Blackwell's, etc.

THE MARKETS. Wall Street Review. New York, June 5.—The stock market showed symptoms of strength at various times today, but the pressure to sell was much exhibited.

Philadelphia Grain and Produce. Philadelphia, June 5.—Wheat—Firm and higher. June, 20 1/2; July, 19 1/2; August, 18 1/2.

New York Grain and Produce. New York, June 5.—Flour—Firmly held and moderately active. Wheat—Firm and higher.

Chicago Grain and Produce. Chicago, June 5.—Corn led the markets on the board of trade today. There was a good demand and a close was made at the July 4 1/2.

Editor Rosewater Contempt Case. Lincoln, Neb., June 5.—The case of Editor Rosewater of the Omaha Bee, charged with contempt of court, is being heard here today by the supreme court. It is alleged that he caused to be published in the Bee four articles relating to the contempt case.

Hayes & Varley 424 and 426 Spruce St., bet. Washington and Wyoming A Timey Sale of Shirt Waists. An immense cash purchase of Shirt Waists, enables us to offer the choicest goods of the season at prices without a parallel for similar qualities.

NERVITA PILLS Restore Vitality, Lost Vigor and Manhood Cure Impotency, Night Emissions, Loss of Memory, all wasting diseases. NERVITA TABLETS EXTRA STRENGTH. Positively guaranteed cure for Loss of Power, Varicocele, Undeveloped or Shrunken Organs, etc.

NERVITA PILLS. Restore Vitality, Lost Vigor and Manhood. Cure Impotency, Night Emissions, Loss of Memory, all wasting diseases. NERVITA TABLETS EXTRA STRENGTH. Positively guaranteed cure for Loss of Power, Varicocele, Undeveloped or Shrunken Organs, etc.